About

The Estuary Center for Healing staff is trained in holistic methods, bringing an authenticity to our work that is our hallmark and provides clients with purpose and meaning not often found in traditional practices. We combine the techniques of energy healing and psychology with Kabbalistic principles into our psychotherapy techniques that bring lasting change into the lives of our clients and originate outside the medical and psychological mainstream. They are truly complimentary to allopathic medicine and traditional psychotherapy, not in conflict with them, as is evidenced by the community support over the years. From our offerings of individual sessions, classes, workshops and training, our clients learn to make choices that bring their conscious evolution to spiritual wholeness.
